

The grave situation of Muslims in India is hidden from no one. What we have suffered for decades has reached a new high in the kufri regime of the BJP. Narendra Modi, the mad king of the Mushrikeen, has built his portfolio on the basis of the number of Muslims he has slaughtered during his rule in Gujarat. These Mushrikeen worship cows and elephants and monkeys but the life of a Muslim means nothing to them. The Mushrikeen always carried hatred in their hearts for the Muslims and have got the best opportunity to torture us. Even a common Hindu has gained the power to abuse and beat a Muslim just because he can do so. He might even get the respect of the Mushrikeen for his action. That is why when the false monks of the city of Haridwar spewed venom against Muslims, to the extent of calling for the mass murder of Muslims as revenge for the supposed attacks that Muslims have made on the Hindus, the rulers remained silent. The Police laughed and enjoyed with those who proudly announced that the Hindus need to kill the Muslims to protect Hinduism and make India a Hindu nation. This was a “Dharm Sansad” meaning the Hindus consider it their duty to torture the Muslims because we are their biggest enemies.

The stench of hatred and bigotry is so repelling that it has become difficult for Muslims to breathe the same air as the Mushrikeen. This dirt of Hindu ideas needs to be cleared so as to cleanse the soil and air of India and make it habitable for Muslims. Like it is crucial to keep the garbage out of the home to keep it clean, in the same way it has become important for Muslims to stop avoiding their responsibility and come forward to clean this filth from earth. The world is burdened by the presence of the Kufaar and the Mushrikeen; it is time to get rid of them and make this world a better place where we can breathe freely. As long as we are under the rule of the Mushrikeen, we are captives. We cannot call ourselves free because we are governed by false laws and false people.

Ever since the decline of the Muslim empire in India, the Muslims have been ruled either by the white Kufaar or the Mushrikeen. We have just been bowing before the tyrants, been shifted from one dirty rule to another like orphans who are thrown out from one place to another. We are transferred like objects from one country to another, and in between looted, raped and murdered. We are the sufferers of all the communal hatred that is fanned in the name of “Hindu dharma” because we are the perpetual outsiders, invaders who started ruling by force over the “innocent” nature-worshipping, ignorant Hindu population. In all this, we forgot who we were; we forgot we had a voice supported by Allah Ta’ala Himself. We are slaves of the crooked system of democracy because we suffer from the worst case of amnesia- we have forgotten the glory of our predecessors, we have forgotten the wounds on the souls and bodies of millions of Muslims at the hands of the Kufaar and the Mushrikeen, we have forgotten the purpose for which we were chosen by Allah.

Why have we accepted the strange and illogical concepts of democracy and nationalism? Did it benefit us in any way? Have we not been the worst victims of these unjust ideas? We have willingly drawn boundaries between us and our brothers in other countries in the name of nationalism. We refuse to recognize them as our own because it has been fed to us that the nation comes before anything or anyone, even if it is your own blood, and Allah directed His servants to treat all Muslims as their own. So are we ready to justify ourselves before Allah when He asks us why we willingly disobeyed him and showed apathy towards our Muslim brothers? Millions of Muslims suffer at the hands of the Kufaar governments all over the World, thousands are stuck in jails in the name of terrorism. If you cannot think of them as your own, then do you even raise one finger in support of your brothers in India? Then what is your Deen? Is your life only to fill the stomachs of your family and show no mercy towards the brothers and sisters gifted to you by Allah?

All of us listen or read the news of Muslims being lynched and tortured in some or the other corner of India every day but it is a sign of great weakness of character that not even one Muslim has protested against the injustices of the Mushrikeen, for how else do we justify the eerie silence and the excessive tolerance that the Muslims are displaying in the face of the brutalities of the Mushrikeen? And even if we are angry, what do we do except peaceful protests and marches? It is hard to understand why are Muslims so afraid of those who lack even a basic sense of humanity and fair judgement, who are created out of beastly nature and therefore, do their best to sustain it by sacrificing the pure blood of the Muslims. And we do it in the name of democracy. Suddenly all that Allah said lays forgotten because we are in a rush to prove to the world that we do not differ from them in any way, that we worship democratic ideals and institutions as much as they do. In the name of democracy, we bear all the injustices. And the Mushrikeen laugh behind our backs because the leaders of the Hindus do not follow any of those high-held ideals themselves.

Yet we say, so what? We love our country more than our religion and we will stand by the ideals given to us by the Mushrikeen. How else can this silence be otherwise justified? If you wish to know the true hearts of the Mushrikeen, just listen to the speeches of their godmen and women, their Hindu party leaders where thousands attend and pledge hatred towards Muslims. This is democracy. You are free to target anyone as long as the government is with you. Neither the Police nor the courts can lay a finger on you because you are with the party with the majority votes and a vile agenda which suits the Hindus.

If we were to see how democracy has affected this world, we will find that the nations who call themselves very liberal and democratic are the ones that have created the most chaos in the world. Any institution of the democratic system is marred with so many flaws that taking help of any of those is sure to waste the resources of the person. Leave alone Muslims, these institutions are not good enough for the Kufaar. The Police are corrupt, the courts are compromised, any other department is full of so much corruption and biased view that one can only succeed if one has money and power. The political system is so filthy that people are only remembered during election time and then forgotten as soon as these madmen gain power. Muslims are suppressed by one political party so that it can please the Mushrikeen. Then another herd of Mushrikeen comes running to the Muslims as their sympathizer and leader. But know that all the Mushrikeen are one. They support their vested interests and for that, they can sacrifice their own. So what importance does a Muslim have then? When Muslims are lynched in the name of saving the cows, do you think democracy will protect those who are worse than animals in the eyes of the rulers? We are so petty in their eyes that our blood can be shed for the animals that the Mushrikeen hold sacred. Such is the state of their madness. Not only the Mushrikeen, many snakes reside among us who call themselves Muslims but are more dangerous than the Mushrikeen. They are the worse sinners who are willingly betraying Allah's cause for the pleasures of this world. Wasim Rizvi is only one example of such snakes waiting to gobble up the Muslims on the first opportunity they get.

When a simple Muslim man who goes around doing his business to feed his family is cursed and beaten up for being a Muslim, imagine how much fear and pain he must feel in his heart. What is a poor man to do other than run around the city, from one street to another and try to earn pennies at the end of the day? But he can no longer earn his living freely because there are enemies lurking around, looking for the weakest prey, so that he can be abused and they can prove their loyalty to their masters, so that they can become famous and gain a ticket in the next election.

The Hindus believe that they are being led by the brightest and the bravest among them but this is where the curse of Allah comes upon them; they remain blind to Allah as well as the treachery of their masters and when their eyes will finally open before Allah in the Hereafter, they will only have the greatest remorse in their hearts when they will have no answer for their misdeeds.

As for Muslims, the remorse will be worse because they said "I believe in Allah" and then left His path. If one argues that he did not digress from the right path but was merely distracted due to his responsibilities, is it not what Allah had warned against when He said, "Every soul shall taste death."

And only on the day of judgement shall you be paid your full recompense. Only he who is saved far from the fire and admitted to the garden will have attained the object (of life); for the life of this world is but goods and chattels of deception. [Quran 3:185]"

Can you still argue that engaging in the chores of daily life can make one forget Allah and that Allah cannot be remembered at all times by enterprising men? Striving for worldly pleasures and ignoring the calls of the mujahideen is akin to choosing the side of the Kufaar because what is a Muslim if he does not live and die for the sake of Allah.

It is time to remove the chains of democracy and nationalism from our necks. It is to be remembered that Allah only helps those who stand bravely in the battlefield in the face of raining bombs and bullets without once shedding a tear. Like Allah, His cause is supreme. Those who stand away from it are standing far away from Allah Himself. It is not the time to bow your heads before the enemy, rather it is time to pick up swords and strike their heads off so that this nation gets rid of falsehood. The Muslims have never shied away from battles against kufr. From the Prophet (PBUH) to the mujahideen in Afghanistan, Iraq, Syria and elsewhere, the true servants of Allah have always chosen the battlefield over the cozy comforts of the home. Thousands remain on the battleground and in jails, living an obscure but peaceful life because it is spent in the service of Allah. If we hesitate, we insult their sacrifice for their brothers and sisters. If not on the battlefield then on social media, if not through swords then through words, find your way to fight kufr. The flame of Jihad shall burn down the camps of the Kufaar and the Mushrikeen forever, In sha Allah.

Wilayat West Africa's media outlet has released a video, titled as "Jeel-Ut-Tamkeen" (The Generation of empowerment), In which for the first time, they have highlighted the training school in which the Lion Hearted Children of the Muslims who came to the areas of Wilayat take the Shar'ai and Military education. The video shows the scene of children participating in Sharia lessons and military courses. The children have also given warnings and messages to the Crusaders, Jews and apostates. In the end they showed real scenes of killing the apostate Nigerian soldiers, and pledging to continue jihad.
